National Kidney Foundation of Illinois

presents

“Dialysis in the 21st Century”

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH, 2005
8:00 A.M. TO 4:00 P.M.
STANDARD CLUB – CHICAGO
320 S. PLYMOUTH COURT

$135 – Physicians (No charge for Fellows)    $65 – Nurses, Dietitians and Social Workers

To register please contact Kate O’Connor at (312) 321-1500

8:00 – 8:30 a.m.  Registration

8:30 – 9:00 a.m.  Selected Updates from the Dialysis Outcomes and Practice Patterns Study (DOPPS)
Rachel Fissell, MD, MS
University of Michigan Medical Center

9:00 – 10:30 a.m.  Short Daily Hemodialysis (Introduction)
George Ting, MD – Stanford University School of Medicine
Aksys Update
Christopher Blagg, MD – University of Washington School of Medicine
Back Home Again in Indiana – NxStage Update
Michael A. Kraus, MD – Indiana University School of Medicine

10:30 – 11:00 a.m.  Nocturnal Hemodialysis (Daily, 6 times per week)
Andreas Perriatos, MD, FRCPC – University of Toronto

11:00 – 11:30 a.m.  Dialysis Patient Panel

11:30 – 12:30 p.m. LUNCH

12:30 – 2:00 p.m.  NKFI Fellows Award Program

2:00 – 2:30 p.m.  Sorbent Dialysis Reborn for Acute and Chronic Renal Failure:
The Allient™ System
Stephen R. Ash, MD, FACP
Director of Dialysis, Dialysis Center for Greater Lafayette

2:30 – 3:00 p.m.  Vascular Access in the 21st Century: The Role of the Nephrologist
Alexander S. Yevzlin, MD – University of Wisconsin, Department of Medicine

3:00 – 3:30 p.m.  Rethinking the Role and Type of Tunneled Hemodialysis and Peritoneal Catheters
Steven J. Bander, MD
St. Louis University

3:30 – 4:00 p.m.  Button Hole Technique and Peritoneal Equilibration Test (PET)
Madhukar Misra, MD – University of Missouri School of Medicine